

Planned Giving

Joining our Legacy Circle by including Compass Center for Women and Families in your estate planning allows you to enjoy the benefits of a gift to charity while making a powerful statement about your value for individual safety, security and self-sufficiency.

Remembering Compass Center

Remembering Compass Center in your Will or Trust, or in your other charitable giving plans, allows us to help thousands of people through our self-sufficiency, domestic violence, and teen empowerment programs. The Legacy Circle is our special way of recognizing those whose planned gifts help to ensure a healthy financial future for Compass Center and greater security for the people we serve. Becoming a member of our Legacy Circle ensures that your values and issues you care about will be long remembered.

We hope you will consider becoming a member of our Legacy Circle. In doing so, we will be honored to list your name on our Legacy Circle donor list, unless you wish that your gift remain anonymous. Additionally, you will be invited to our annual donor recognition events.

How Can I Join the Legacy Circle?

There are many tax-advantageous ways to benefit Compass Center in your estate plan:

- Name Compass Center as a beneficiary in a Will or Living Trust
- Name Compass Center as the beneficiary of a paid life insurance policy or retirement account.

Please complete the Statement of Testamentary Provision and return it to our address listed on the form. You may provide as much or as little of the information as you feel comfortable.
