Be a beacon of hope and stability by joining our North Star Network today!

Join Compass Center's North Star Network & be a guiding light for survivors of domestic violence. Government funding is uncertain, but with the support of businesses, corporations, and community sponsors like you, we can ensure survivors always have a place to turn. Just as a compass provides direction in uncertain times, your partnership helps us offer court advocacy, safety planning, scattered-site emergency shelter, and essential resources to those escaping abuse. By becoming an annual fiscal sponsor, you will play a vital role in empowering survivors and strengthening our community, and confirm your company's commitment to keeping Compass Center's life-changing programs available in times of uncertainty.
